

Judy Selvaraj

My professional training and involvement in psychology and education gives me the opportunity to offer consultations for pre-schoolers, primary and secondary students, adolescents and adults. My academic experience in the roles of both education and psychology reflects on my specialist knowledge

Services that are available include: Areas of Specialist Knowledge

- Cognitive and educational assessments for pre-school, primary, secondary and adults.
- Behavioural programmes and support for children and adolescents.
- Parent support programmes
- Advocacy support for special needs students and families in school
- Advisory and guidance sessions for families
- Assessing gifted and dyslexic students
- Educational advice for children and adults with Asperger's Disorder
- Trained Facilitator and Counsellor
- Evaluating individual reading, mathematics and writing needs
- Assessments for reader/writer support in secondary schools
- Counselling for behaviour support for pre-school, primary and secondary students
- Assessing adults for reader/writer support and those who enter University and Polytechnic education
- Assessing children with learning disabilities
- Assessing children and adults for Dyslexia, Dyscalculia, Dysgraphia and Dyspraxia
- Arranging individually tailored sessions in motivational and educational development for adults
- Court Assessments (Educational evaluations)
- Advocacy support for students and families in schools
- Helping to understand an Individual Education Plan
- Assisting with Social and Emotional difficulties

Qualifications

- Master of Arts (Psychology), Hons, The University of Auckland
- Master of Education (Hons), The University of Auckland
- Bachelor of Arts (Psychology and Education), The University of Auckland
- Diploma in Teaching (with Distinction), The University of Auckland
- Registered Educational Psychologist (NZ Psychologists' Board)
- Registered Teacher (NZ Teachers' Council)

Fees: $180 per hour including GST for Comprehensive Assessments and Reader/Writer Assessments (report included)
$130 per hour (all other services)
Payment can be made by cheque, cash, Eftpos on day

Consideration is supported, for financial needs, according to individual circumstances