

CLEFT SERVICE - PROFILES

Plastic Surgeons  § Glenn Bartlett	Glenn Bartlett graduated from Auckland school of Medicine in 1988. He trained in Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery at Middlemore Hospital and Christchurch and continued his higher training at Royal Melbourne Children's hospital where he pursued interests in Paediatric Plastic Surgery and Craniofacial Surgery. He has been with the cleft team for over 10 years.
Orthodontist  § Heather Keall § Mark Pinkerton  Orthodontic auxiliary  § Ana Mosca	Heather Keall graduated with a BDS from Otago in 1977 and obtained her specialist Orthodontic qualification from Michigan in 1986. Heather is currently an Orthodontic consultant for the Cleft lip and Palate service at Middlemore Hospital, with a part time private practice.  Mark Pinkerton: Profile currently under development.  Ana Mosca: Profile currently under development.
Otolaryngologist (Ear, Nose, &amp; Throat Specialist)  § Lesley Salkeld MBChB, FRASC, FRCSC, Dip ABO	Lesley Salkeld graduated from University of Auckland, with specialty training in Vancouver, Canada, Boston, Chicago. Pittsburgh. She has been a consultant for the cleft service in Vancouver and since 1998 holds a joint position as Senior Medical Officer at Starship Children's Hospital and Counties Manukau District Health Board.  Special areas of interest in Otolaryngology include middle ear disease, airway/breathing obstruction, voice and communication disorders, Cleft lip and Palate.  Participated in a 10 year review for publication of patients treated at Middlemore Hospital based Cleft Programme regarding Otitis media and Velo-pharyngeal function  Personal interests include travel, choir singing, cooking, theatre costume design and hiking.
Speech Language Therapist  § Maeve Morrison § Laura Wells	Maeve Morrison graduated from Manchester University in Speech pathology and therapy. She has over 15years experience in Cleft lip and Palate speech therapy. Maeve has a Masters Certificate in cleft palate speech  Laura Wells trained in psychology at Otago University and did her Masters in speech language therapy practice at Auckland University. Currently working as a Speech language therapist for the cleft service and child development service at Counties Manukau.
Cleft service coordinator  § Megan Sanders	Megan's background is in Paediatric surgical nursing. She qualified in 1987 and began work at Middlemore Hospital. Megan specialised in Paediatric nursing at MMH/Kidz First and has completed her Post Graduate study in Child/Family Health. Megan has been the cleft coordinator since 2006 and it is her responsibility to coordinate, educate and support the child and their families throughout their cleft journey.

Document Name	Cleft Service , Profiles.doc	Version:	1.0 May 2009
Document Owner:	CMDHB Cleft Co-ordinator	Next Review Date:	May 2011
Counties Manukau District Health Board			