Breastfeeding Support in South Auckland

It can take time to learn how to breastfeed. It is important to get the support you need where, and when you need it. If you had your baby at the hospital or a birthing unit, you may have been visited by a breastfeeding advocate or a lactation consultant. Lactation consultants specialise in supporting people with breastfeeding challenges. As well as whaanau, there are free community breastfeeding services available in South Auckland to support you.

Your midwife

Your midwife can support you while you are pregnant and for up to six weeks after your baby is born. Your midwife will visit you at home within 24 hours after you leave the hospital or birthing unit. If you want help with baby's feeding when you are at home, contact your midwife.

Birthing units

If your midwife is not available, you are welcome to phone the birthing unit in your area for help.
