Newborn Car Seat Rental Schemes

Safety Standards:

As a driver you are legally responsible to ensure that any child under five years of age is properly restrained by an approved child restraint that is appropriate for the age and size of the child.

- All babies must be in an appropriate car seat before leaving the hospital.
- Please, make sure you know how to operate the car seat before you put baby in.
- By NZ law all children from 0—5 years must be in an approved child restraint suitable for a child.
- The cost of renting child restraints can vary. Sometimes Work and Income New Zealand can provide financial assistance:
